How will we use your details:

Children Worldwide and Dalesdown are part of a single charity called Family Foundations Trust, who will be fully responsible as Data Controller for the information you have provided us. As a supporter, you are really important to us. We would love to occasionally contact you to let you know about opportunities, events and fundraising activities.

We will not pass your details onto any another organisation for use in marketing or for any other purpose. We will store your personal data securely and we'll use this information to deliver what you have asked us to, and to communicate with you only in the ways in which you have asked.

If you want to read more about what this means or when we may use your data in this way, you can read our full privacy policy on our website, www.familyfoundationstrust.org.uk

You can be removed from our lists at any time by telephoning 01403 710712, or by email to events@dalesdown.org.uk
